

Bedford Hills Free Library

Programs for School Children

Little Owls Book Club

Grades K-2

Friday, December 18, 4:30pm

Led by Alanna Donohue

This program combines a book club with a themed story time. Laughter is required. Listen to stories and let's find out what's so funny. Once registered please pick up your activity bag at the Library. Register for the Zoom meeting here.

Chapter Chatter

Grade 3-4

Wednesday, December 16, 6:30pm

Led by Willoughby Levesque and Erin Meyer

Kids chat about favorite chapter books with others at a friendly Zoom gathering. Pick up any biography to read for the next discussion. Register for the Zoom meeting here.

InBeTween Pages

Grades 5-7

Wednesday, December 9, 6:30pm

Led by Sara Hooper

Tweens are invited to join and be a part of lively discussions over buzz-worthy and popular books. Call the Library and pick up a copy of "Gregor the Overlander" by Suzanne Collins for the next discussion. Newcomers welcome any time. Register for the Zoom meeting here.

Winter Craft Kits-to-Go Pick-up

Grade K - 5

Toy in a Tin

Create a keepsake toy in a tin box. Draw a skating scene and a figure or use a photograph of someone in your family, a pet or even a polar bear; add "skates" and watch them glide over the "ice". Show your friends or give as a special gift. Craft has small parts; not suitable for small children. Register here by December 18. Pick up during Library hours December 21-30

Art & Easel

Make a little easel from Popsicle sticks and frame pieces of your own artwork or even favorite photo. Have fun creating a personal art display to show off your talents or make a gift to someone special. The possibilities are endless. Register here by December 18. Pick up during Library hours December 21-30

Winter Solstice - Family Pajama Story Time

K-Grade 1

Monday, December 21, 6pm

Led by Rachel Izes

Celebrate the longest night of the year in style! Put on your favorite pajamas, pick a cozy spot, cuddle up with a stuffed animal friend, and join us live on Zoom to hear charming bedtime stories with the whole family. Register for the Zoom meeting here, you will receive a link to join us.

Please call the Library for more information: 914.666.6472

