

Bedford Hills Free Library

Programs for School Children

Little Owls Book Club

Grades K-2; Friday, November 19 at 4:30 pm via Zoom

Kids are invited to join a monthly program that combines a book club with a themed storytime. Laughter is required. Listen to stories and let's find out what's so funny. After you register and during Library hours the week of the program, pick up an activity bag with a craft to put together during the meeting. Led by Alanna Donohue

Register here: <https://bit.ly/littleowlsnov19>

Chapter Chatter

Grade 3-4; Wednesday, November 10, 6:30pm via Zoom

New! Did you know there's a whole universe of graphic novels that are not just about superheroes? Join us for fun discussions and activities that will explore this exciting genre. Open to all creative thinkers who love to read, write or draw. Call the Library to pick up a copy of Fairy Tale Comics: Classic Tales Told by Extraordinary Cartoonists by various authors. Led by Sara Hooper.

Register here: <https://bit.ly/chapterchatternov10>

In BeTween Pages

Grades 5-7; Wednesday, November 17 at 6:30 pm via Zoom

Dive into the popular world of Graphic Novels! Graphic Novels allow creators to add a visual dimension to their stories. This invites readers to experience them in unique and exciting ways. Join us via Zoom as we delve, sketch, and scribble together each month! Call the Library to pick up a copy of Explorer: The Mystery Boxes by various authors. Join us for fun discussions and activities related to the genre. Led by Elizabeth McGoldrick.

Register here: <https://bit.ly/inbetweennov17>

New StoryWalk Installation

Bedford Hills Memorial Park

Families and residents of all ages are invited to enjoy a good story and a healthy walk between the pages in the Bedford Hills Memorial Park. Picture book pages are displayed on posts that begin near the playground and are spaced along the path that winds along Lake Marie. The StoryWalk is open during park hours in November.

The Bedford Hills Free Library StoryWalk is presented in partnership with the Town of Bedford, Recreation and Parks Department.